GRAIN

Chicago Grain Conditions.

CHICAGO. July 19 — Waterfroged conditions in the harvest rields brought about higher prices today for wheat. The market closed impetited, 1½ to 3½ cents above Saturday's level. Corn finished ½ to 1½ up, and onto at ½ 22½ cent decline to ¼ advance. In provisions the outcome ranged from 5 cents loss to galos of 12½ 60 15.

It was apparently inevitable that delays to harvesting and moving the now crop would be made worse by the downpoins, especially in Nebraska, where much of the yield is still amout, and owing to the scaked state of the soil cannot be approached with machinery. In addition railway reports said that aside from the effect of decisions storms, rural owners in Kansus and Oklaboma were holding shipments back for higher prices.

Signs that foreigners were un the buying side of wheat, futures here tended to keep practions in value from being of a lasting sort. ort.

Corn mayed higher influenced chiefly by the strength of wheat. Oats held within a narrow range. Steadiness resulted largely from wet weather delaying the harvest.

Forkers buying railied provisions. At first the market had been weak and lower
